

DIVYADAAN
Journal of Philosophy & Education

CONTENTS

Proceedings of the Fourth International Lonergan
Workshop, Jerusalem, 2013

Editor's Note Ivo Coelho	1
Communication as a Process of Mutual Self-Mediation Robert Pen	3
Religious Love in Bernard Lonergan as Hermeneutical and Transcultural: The Context for Dialogue Carla Mae Streeter	17
Ethics, Discernment and Self-Appropriation Patrick H. Byrne	33
Philosophy in the Service of Ecumenical and Interreligious Dialogue: Question, Context and Content Maury Schepers	77
How might we apply the Work of Bernard Lonergan to the Eco-Climate Crisis? Tom McAuley	93
On Teachers as Angels: A Reflection on a Life in the Middle East Stephanie Saldaña	111
Lonergan, Voegelin, and the Phenomenology of Religious Consciousness Thomas J. McPartland	127
A Theology, a Cultural Matrix, a Religion Cloe Taddei-Ferretti	159
Person and Relation: Ratzinger, De Smet and Lonergan in Conversation Ivo Coelho	173

Development of Doctrines and Permanence of Dogmas according to Bernard Lonergan Saturnino Muratore	209
A Jewish and a Christian Approach to the Problematic of Jerusalem and Athens: Leo Strauss and Bernard Lonergan Frederick G. Lawrence	217
Our Contributors	319